

Caution

To students :

There is always news on media about cannabis dealing , smoking and cultivation by university students.

The possession, cultivation and transfer of cannabis are illegal in Japan and anyone who violates the Law will be jailed up to seven years.

We would like to raise caution about not getting involved in cannabis crimes.

September, 2009

Akio SAITO

Executive Vice President for Education
Tokyo Institute of Technology